Purpose

A two-day live review course designed to help registered nurses prepare for the Certified Medical-Surgical Registered Nurse (CMSRN) examination.

Target Audience

Registered Nurses interested in pursuing CMSRN certification and advancing their professional development.

Program Description

A review of CMSRN core content, including practice questions and test-taking strategies to support certification success.

Accreditation

The Academy of Medical-Surgical Nurses (AMSN) is accredited as a provider of Nursing Continuing Professional Development by the American Nurses Credentialing Center's Commission on Accreditation.
14.0 Continuing Nursing Education (CNE) contact hours awarded.

Pre-Work

Establish eligibility, complete available practice examinations, and review readiness with your supervisor.

Readiness to Attend and Participate

- ✓ Research suggests that advance preparation before a certification review course, combined with continuing education and practice examinations, enhances learning, improves exam readiness, and supports certification success. *
- ✓ For best results, participants should plan to take the certification examination within 8 weeks of completing the review course.
- ✓ Verify certification eligibility requirements, including the required medical-surgical practice hours, CNE credits, and preparation for the certification examination.
