SUPPORT PROSPECTUS 2022

AMSN
31st Annual Medical-Surgical Nursing Convention

Attend Online and In-Person
September 29-October 2, 2022
Henry B. Gonzalez Convention Center
San Antonio, TX
The Academy of Medical-Surgical Nurses is offering opportunities for your company to be positioned as a source of reliable information and showcase your products and/or services at our new and expanded Annual Convention.

The AMSN In-Person and Virtual Annual Convention will be held September 29 – October 2, 2022 from the Henry B. Gonzalez Convention Center and virtually from your home or office.

When you participate in the AMSN Convention at any level, you will have an outstanding opportunity to feature your products and/or services. You will reach a targeted audience of skilled and experienced surgical specialists. Attendees are buyers and recommenders for purchases of equipment, products, and services.

Exhibit In-Person

The exhibit program provides proven networking and selling opportunities. Along with 6.0 exclusive non-competing hours, your hours are concentrated, effective and productive where you can interact with 600+ med-surg nurses dedicated to improving quality-of-care in med-surg. In-person exhibitors have an opportunity to also participate virtually.

Exhibit Virtually

While participating in-person might be ideal, virtual participation has distinct advantages. You’ll save money; reach more attendees; showcase your company’s videos and documents; capture valuable attendee data; and have many opportunities to engage with attendees via live chat and Zoom.

Advertise

Your company’s ad on the Virtual Event Portal Page will be seen many times.

Sponsorship

Convention sponsorship is a recognition and positioning package in connection with both the in-person and virtual portions of the Convention.

Take this opportunity to experience and participate in the enthusiasm and excitement of this dynamic specialty nursing organization. Plan now to exhibit with us in-person or virtually – and possibly be an advertiser or sponsor – to ensure high visibility and position your company as a trusted source of information with the AMSN attendee.
